David Skaggs Research Center - Boulder, Colorado

DIA to NOAA Driving Directions

Exit Denver International Airport via Peña Boulevard. Take Peña Boulevard to I-70 westbound.

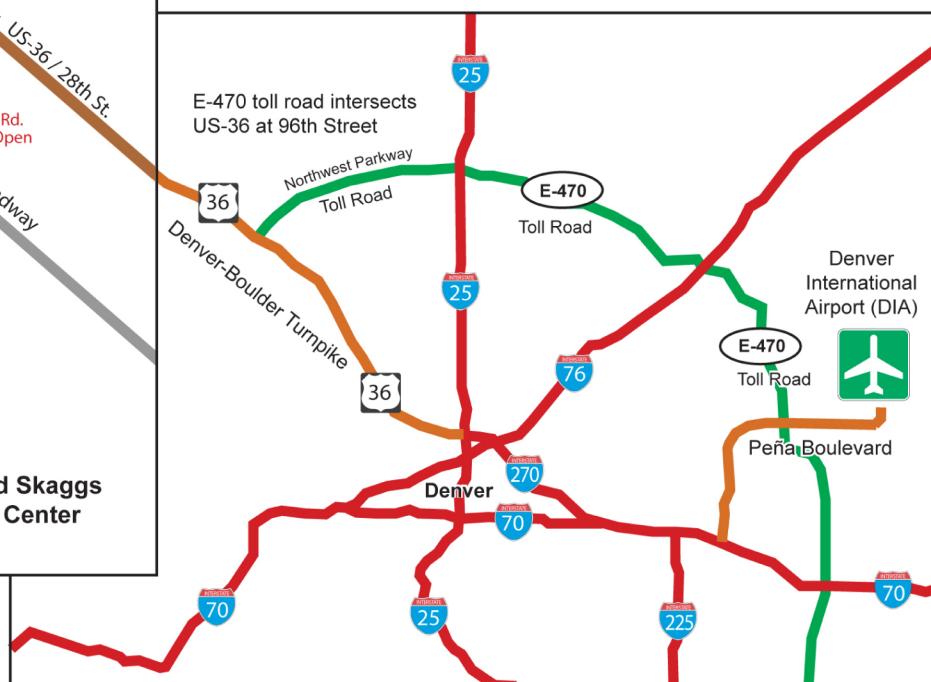

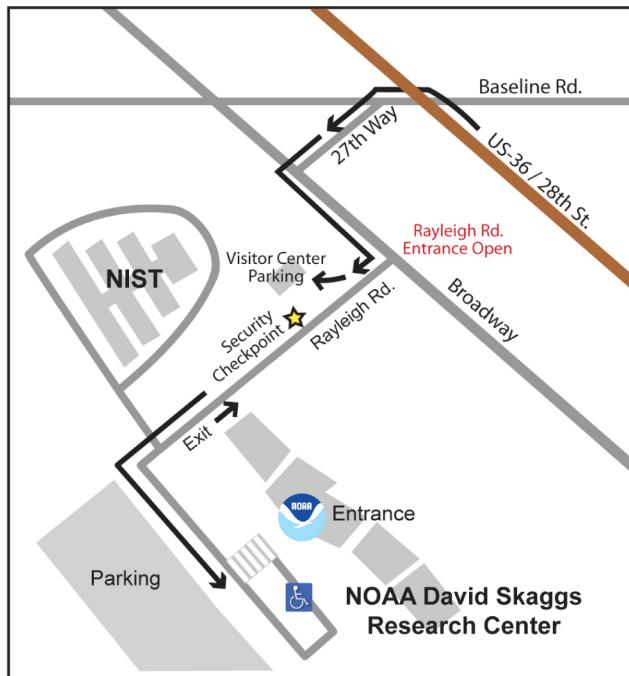

Split right (north) onto I-270 (exit 279) and follow past I-25. I-270 becomes US 36 westbound just past the I-25 overpass.

When you come into Boulder, exit on Baseline Road. Keep left. Turn onto Baseline westbound through the underpass.

Visitor Check In

Visitors to NOAA in Boulder need a visitor's badge to enter the Department of Commerce campus and visit the David Skaggs Research Center (NOAA's building).

How To:

- Park next to the Visitors Center, at the intersection of Rayleigh Road and Broadway
- Inside, present a current photo ID, non US citizens must have a valid passport, and be screened by a magnetometer (like at the airport)
- Return to your vehicle and proceed through the checkpoint, displaying your visitor's badge to the guard
- Drive up Rayleigh Road to a large parking lot on the left (west side of the NOAA building) and park; handicapped parking is along the frontage road in front of the building
- Enter the lobby where the flags fly in front of the building, and show your visitor's badge to the guard.
